NOMINATIONS OF RICARDO HINOJOSA AND MICHAEL HOROWITZ

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. President, I support the nominations of Ricardo Hinojosa and Michael Horowitz to the United States Sentencing Commission. The Sentencing Commission is responsible for developing guidelines for sentencing in Federal courts; collecting data about crime and sentencing; and serving as a resource to Congress, the White House, the Justice Department, and the judiciary on crime and sentencing policy. It is therefore critical that nominations to this commission continue to be made in a fair, cooperative, and bipartisan manner.

When Mr. Hinojosa's and Mr. Horowitz's nominations came up in the Judiciary Committee in March 2003, I voted "present" because I was concerned about the process by which the White House had selected them. In particular, I was concerned that instead of the bipartisan selection process by which previous nominees had been named, the White House had selected Mr. Horowitz as an ostensible "Democratic" nominee without any consultation with Senate Democrats.

Since that vote in committee, I have been informed that White House Counsel Alberto Gonzales has assured the ranking member of our committee, Senator LEAHY, that the White House is treating both Mr. Hinojosa and Mr. Horowitz as Republican nominees to the commission. I further understand that when the next three vacancies arise on the commission in October, the President will either reappoint all three commissioners now holding those seats—Ruben Castillo, William Sessions, and Michael O'Neill—or will consult in the traditional and appropriate manner with the Democratic leadership before announcing a replacement nominee for a current Democratic commissioner. Based on that understanding, I have decided to support these important nominations to the U.S. Sentencing Commission.

LEGISLATIVE SESSION

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senate will now return to legislative session.
