Service:

Appointments Committee (2007-2008); Reappointment, Promotion, and Tenure Committee (2008-2009); Bar Exam and Rankings Committee (2007-2009); Career Service Advisory Committee (2009-present); Dean's Advisory Committee (2007-2008; 2008-2009) (elected position).

University of Houston Law Center (Houston, TX)

Professor of Law (June 1, 2006-June 30, 2007).
Dean and Professor of Law (August 2000-May 31, 2006).

Responsibilities as Dean:

Managed all areas of Law Center life; served as primary external spokesperson for the Law Center; facilitated internal programs of the Law Center; raised public and private funds for the Law Center; highlighted the University's and Law Center's programs in discussions with various Texas legislators; and served the state of Texas as CEO of the state's premier urban, public law school. As Dean, taught one course per year.

The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, the Associate Dean for Student Affairs, the Director of the O'Quinn Law Library, the Associate Dean for Information Technology, the Associate Dean for Finance and Administration and Chief Operating Officer of the Law Foundation, the Associate Dean for External Affairs and Executive Director of the Law Foundation, and the Director of CLE all reported directly to me.

Significant accomplishments as Dean:

Facilitated the establishment of several new centers, programs, and institutes, including the Criminal Justice Institute, the Institute for Energy, Law & Enterprise (now the Program In Energy, Environment & Natural Resources), and the Center for Consumer Law; reinvigorated the Blakely Advocacy Institute (BAI) and acquired the A.A. White Center for Dispute Resolution as part of the BAI; encouraged the first major revamping of the Law Center's curriculum in twenty years; hired fourteen new faculty members (three of which hold endowed chairs at the Law Center); presided over a record increase in the amount and size of gifts to the Law Center, even during a downturn in the economy. Raised seven new Law Center professorships, in partnership with a special campaign of the University of Houston, in under two months. Facilitated the Law Center's recovery from the devastation caused by Tropical Storm Allison on June 9, 2001, which poured over 12 feet of water into the Law Center's sub-basement and destroyed much of its library collection (over 175,000 volumes and 1,000,000 microfiche lost) as well as much of its facilities.

Service highlights:

Foltz, Jr. Inn of Court (Bankruptcy Inn) (2003-2007), Executive Committee (2004-2006); UH Faculty Senate Commission on University Governance (2004-2006); Texas General Counsel Forum Statewide Advisory Committee (2004-2006); member, Search Committee for Vice President/Vice Chancellor of University Advancement (2004-2005); Garland Walker Inn of Court (2004-2007); State Bar of Texas's Women in the Profession Committee (2002-2005); Texas Supreme Court's Gender Equity Taskforce (2002-2006); Rice University Business & Professional Women (2002-2006); Texas Accountants & Lawyers for the Arts (2002-2006); Houston Bar Association (2000-2007); Houston Bar Foundation, Selection Committee for the Best Article Award (2000-2006); City of Houston Mayor's Pension Governance Advisory Committee (2004-2006); UH Commission on Women (ex officio) (2004-2005); Houston Bar Foundation Fellow (2003-2007); Texas Supreme Court's Gender Fairness Task Force (2002-2006); Executive Committee, A.A. White Inn of Court (2000-2002); community associate, Wiess College (Rice University) (2000-2007).

University of Nebraska College of Law (Lincoln, NE)

Dean and Professor of Law (July 1998-August 2000).

Responsibilities:

CEO of Nebraska's land-grant law school. 1999-2000 state budget for the Law College (excluding the Schmid Law Library) was approximately $3.5 million; 1998-1999 private funds had a market value of approximately $35.5 million and a book value of approximately $15.9 million. The Associate Dean, the Assistant Dean for Administration and Student Services, the Assistant Dean for Career Services and Alumni Relations, the Director of the Law Library, the Director of Development, the Office Manager, and the Acting Head of the Nebraska Institute for Technology in the Practice of Law all reported directly to me.

Achievements:

Instituted the creation of a new Access database to enable all Law College administrative units to organize and share information; encouraged the establishment of new student organizations (including an organization for law students who prefer non-traditional career paths and a GLBT student organization); encouraged the development of a link between an undergraduate "learning community" and the Law College; helped to organize a campus-wide cross-disciplinary ethics initiative; instituted systems facilitating the scheduling of Law College events, the timely review of employees, and the cultivation and stewardship of donors; initiated the design of the new "image" of the Law College; revamped the furnishings of the student lounge (at zero cost to the Law College); and raised significant funds for such needs as scholarships and professorships. I was the point person for completing the fund-raising for, and coordinating the design and construction of, the planned addition to the Schmid Law Library. I also taught at least one course a year, including Sales, Images of Lawyers in Film, and the Skills course for first-year law students; I supervised several independent studies; and I maintained an active research agenda in my areas of professional responsibility and bankruptcy ethics.

Service:

Rotary Club #14, Lincoln, Nebraska (1999-2000); chair, UNL Search Committee for Dean of College of Arts & Sciences (2000); chair, UNL Search Committee for Dean of College of Architecture (1999-2000); member, Chancellor's Special Budget Advisory Committee (1999); member, UNL's Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Partnership Initiative, Policy and Enforcement Workgroup (1998-2000); UNL Mentoring Program (mentoring then-Assistant Professor Julia McQuillan) (1998-2000); member, University-Wide Assessment Committee (1998-2000); member, NSBA Bankruptcy Section Sub-Committee on Legislative Issues (1999-2000); co-chair of Homestead Girl Scout Council's Task Force on Diversity (1999); head of portion of YMCA's "Building Strong Kids" Campaign dealing with UNL contributions (1999).

The Ohio State University College of Law (now Moritz College of Law) (Columbus, OH)

Professor (promoted to the rank of Professor in 1998 as I was leaving to become Dean at Nebraska).

Associate Dean for Student Affairs (1996-98).

Responsibilities:

Supervised admissions, financial aid, and placement offices; managed a staff that included the Assistant Dean of Admissions and Financial Aid, the Financial Aid Counselor and Staff Assistant, the Placement Director, and their associated support personnel; was directly responsible for admissions budget; supervised budgets for financial aid and placement; counseled potential applicants regarding admission to College of Law; counseled existing students on academic and non-academic issues; worked with Development Director regarding the establishment and maintenance of scholarships and other relationships with donors; worked with Assistant Dean of Alumni Affairs to use alumni in recruiting activities; acted as "Chief Morale Officer" of College. Concurrently taught a half-load of courses.

Associate Professor (with tenure) (1995-98).

Teaching innovations:

Established e/mail listservs in all of my courses, leading to significant additional out-of-class contacts with students; integrated in-class exercises on drafting and negotiation in my Sales and Contracts courses; created "Friday Learning Sessions" to bring 1L, 2L, and 3L students together for discussions of general interest.

Assistant Professor (1991-95).

Principal subjects:

Debtor-Creditor Law; Advanced Bankruptcy Seminar (Chapter 11 Issues); Contracts; Sales; Professional Responsibility; Contract Drafting and Negotiation; Legal Writing & Analysis (OSU used full-time faculty to teach this course).

Service:
