UNLV WILLIAM S. BOYD SCHOOL OF LAW

SALTMAN CENTER FOR CONFLICT RESOLUTION, Las Vegas, NV

Associate Professor-in-Residence and Director of Negotiation Training (2006 – present)

I teach law school classes in negotiation, coach the law school's Negotiation Team, and conduct negotiation trainings and workshops for corporate, government, and nonprofit groups and associations.

WASHBURN SCHOOL OF LAW, Topeka, KS

Associate Professor of Law (2005 – 2006)

I taught Contracts I and II, Negotiations, and Alternative Dispute Resolution.

GEORGETOWN-HEWLETT PROGRAM IN CONFLICT RESOLUTION

& LEGAL PROBLEM-SOLVING, Georgetown University Law Center, Washington, D.C.

Hewlett Fellow (2002 – 2005)

Adjunct Professor of Law (2003 – 2005)

This was a three-year, LL.M. degree-granting fellowship program. As a Fellow, I taught and wrote in the fields of negotiation and alternative dispute resolution. Beginning in the summer term of 2003, I taught “Negotiations Seminar” every semester at the law school as an Adjunct Professor.

UNITED STATES COMMISSION ON CIVIL RIGHTS, Washington, D.C.

Attorney-Advisor, Office of General Counsel (1995 – 2002)

The Commission is an independent, bipartisan fact-finding agency of the executive branch. As attorney-advisor, I researched and drafted written analyses of laws, regulations and policies relating to civil rights; analyzed information gathered through Commission hearings; and drafted final hearing reports. I also served as Agency Parliamentarian at monthly Commission meetings, ensuring strict adherence to parliamentary procedure and responding to Commissioner inquiries during the meetings.

THE APPEALS COURT, COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS, Boston, MA

Law Clerk to Judge Raya S. Dreben (1993 – 1994)

Attended oral arguments, reviewed trial records, and researched for and wrote legal memoranda concerning the civil and criminal cases assigned to Judge Dreben.
