

RECIPROCITY POLICY

William S. Boyd School of Law is happy to share its resources with students and graduates from ABA-accredited law schools with the following safeguards:

1. Requests for reciprocity must be made by email by the career services office of the student or graduate seeking reciprocity. Please allow up to one week to process your request. Requests for reciprocity should be sent to:
Poppy Johnston
William S. Boyd School of Law
4505 Maryland Parkway, Box 451003
Las Vegas, Nevada 89154
Poppy.Johnston@unlv.edu
2. Reciprocity will be granted for a period of three months from the date on which reciprocity is granted; however, reciprocal services will not be provided during the spring and fall recruiting periods, February 1st through March 1st and August 1st through November 1st.
3. Reciprocity includes access to:
 - a. current job listings, including electronic access (electronic access is available to those students/graduates from law schools that grant William S. Boyd School of Law students/graduates similar access); and
 - b. resource library and other resources in the Career Services office.
4. Reciprocity does not include:
 - a. participation in on-campus interview programs;
 - b. individual career advising; and
 - c. borrowing books from the Career Services library.
5. Students and graduates who have been granted reciprocity and wish to visit the Career Services office must contact Career Services at least two business days in advance of the visit. Please check in at the front desk upon arrival. Absolutely no walk-ins will be allowed.
6. Career Services reserves the right to deny or terminate reciprocity with anyone whose conduct is deemed improper or inappropriate. This right is reserved in all cases and is solely at the discretion of our office.
