

The Center for Academic Success and Enrichment (CASE)

CASE Workshop Schedule

Several CASE sessions will be offered during the Fall semester. Each session will be held on Wednesday evening (for evening students) and then will be repeated on Thursday morning (for day students). You only need to attend one.

The sessions will be held in the following rooms at the designated times:

Wednesday: 8:15 -- 9:10 PM in Room 102

Thursday: 11:00 – 11:55 AM in Room 102

Below is a schedule of sessions that will be offered.

August 29 & 30, 2007	Briefing Cases	-How do I brief? -What exactly is a holding? -Is my issue statement too broad? -What’s the easiest way to brief? -Can’t I just write notes in the margin instead?
September 5 & 6, 2007	Aggressive Reading	Develop your analytical skills
September 12 & 13, 2007	Learning Theory	Work on Efficient Learning
September 19 & 20, 2007	Time Management	Drop by – it’s a good way to procrastinate.
September 26 & 27, 2007	Note Taking	Get the most out of class
October 3 & 4, 2007	Outlining	-Do I really have to do one? -Won’t a commercial outline be just as good? -How do I outline? -How can I make my outline “exam-targeted”? -When should I start outlining? -How long should I be?
Exam Series begins:	CASE will present a series of exam writing workshops	-How are law school exams graded? -What types of different questions can be asked? -How many practice exams should I do? -Do I have to use certain “buzzwords” in my answer?
October 24 & 25, 2007	Exam 1	How to write an exam answer.
October 31 & November 1, 2007	Exam 2	How to avoid the common mistakes in exam writing.
November 7 & 8, 2007	Exam 3	Mock Exam - take an exam and have your answer analyzed