

AMY GAMAGE

Amy was born in Randolph, Vermont, and moved to Las Vegas in 1997. In 1999, Amy received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology with honors at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. While at the University of Nevada, Amy received the Regents Award for her internship with Temporary Assistance for Domestic Crisis/Safe Nest, and was a member of the Psi Chi National Honor Society. Amy also participated extensively with the Association for Advancement of Behavioral Therapy, American Psychology Association, Community Action Against Rape, Trauma Intervention Program, and conducted research on child abuse and neglect treatment, and the effects of witnessing domestic violence on children.

In 2003, Amy graduated from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas - Boyd School of Law. While at the Boyd School of Law, Amy served as a judicial extern for the Honorable Linda B. Riegler, United State Bankruptcy Court, and as a research assistant. Amy was also a member of the Academic Standards Committee and served as the Business and Publications Editor for the Nevada Law Review Journal. Amy also participated extensively with the Student Bar Association and was a founding chapter member of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity.

After successfully passing the Nevada Bar, Amy has practiced primarily in the areas of Business and Corporate Law, Estate Planning, Real Estate Law, Civil Litigation and Personal Injury matters. Transactional services for clients included income tax planning, asset protection planning, business planning, business succession planning, drafting of contracts and their negotiation, estate planning, probate, and commercial and residential property transfers. In addition to her Nevada Bar membership, Amy is a member of the American Bar Association, the Clark County Bar Association, the Nevada Justice Association, South Nevada Association of Women Attorneys and the Association of Trial Lawyers of America.