

Samuel P. McMullen
Snell & Wilmer L.L.P.

Practice is concentrated in governmental law, strategic positioning, lobbying and political strategy. Represents business and political clients for maximum positive effect in legal and strategic positioning, governmental relations and public affairs. Skilled in multiple governmental and regulatory agents including gaming, state and local, taxation, licensing and permitting, insurance, health, utility, environmental, energy, land use and planning among others. Specialty in initiative and referendum, law and litigation, campaign and election, political contributions, and PAC laws and regulation.

Personal

Born Elko, Nevada

Professional Memberships & Activities

State Bar of Nevada

Executive Committee, Gaming Law Section (1984-1993)

American Legislative Exchange Council, Private Sector Chairman (1985-present)

Board of Directors, Gaming Industry Association (1988-1990)

Other Professional Experience

President, The McMullen Strategic Group

Principal and Partner, Law Offices of Samuel P. McMullen, Esq.

Principal and Partner, Law Firm of Avansino, Melarkey, Knobel, McMullen and Mulligan (1991-1999)

Executive Director, The Northern Nevada Gaming Industry Association (1990-1998)

Vice President, Governmental Affairs, Harrah's Strategic Group (1986-1990)

Associate General Counsel and Director, Governmental Affairs, Harrah's Strategic Group (1981-1986)

Deputy Attorney General, Gaming Division of the Office of the Attorney General of Nevada (1980-1981)

Deputy Attorney General, Civil Division of the Office of the Attorney General of Nevada (1979-1980)

Community Involvement

Three Square, Operating Board of Directors: Las Vegas Anti-Hunger, nonprofit (2007-present)

Western Folklife Center, National Advisory Council (1989-present)