

Booker T. Evans, a shareholder in the law firm of Greenberg Traurig, LLP and based in Phoenix, Arizona, focuses his practice in the areas of White Collar Crime and Commercial Litigation. He is experienced in the areas of criminal defense, commercial litigation, products liability, insurance matters, criminal and civil RICO cases and healthcare matters. Booker has substantial civil and criminal trial experience, having tried cases involving allegations of defective products, bad faith on the part of insurance carriers, disputes over real estate holdings and trademark infringement, as well as a number of cases involving allegations of criminal conduct. He also handles post-conviction cases in Federal Courts and is often retained in matters involving the Federal Sentencing Guidelines. Booker Evans is licensed and practices in both Arizona and Nevada.

Prior to beginning his legal career, Booker served as a Psychologist and Director of the Westside Counseling Center in Las Vegas, Nevada, and also served as a Counselor and Assistant Professor at the University of Nevada Las Vegas and the North Campus of Miami-Dade Community College.