

Myths and Missions: The ACLU's Agenda for the Obama Second Term and Beyond

The UNLV Boyd School of Law will host

ACLU President Susan Herman

for a talk on Obama's second term. In addition to her ACLU service, Herman serves as the Centennial Professor of Law at Brooklyn Law School, where she teaches Constitutional Law, Criminal Procedure, Law and Literature, and Terrorism and Civil Liberties.

Friday, January 25, 2013

12:30 p.m.

Thomas & Mack Moot Court Facility

A Q&A session will immediately follow the presentation.

Free and open to the public; no RSVP required.

For more information, visit www.law.unlv.edu.

UNLV WILLIAM S. BOYD
SCHOOL OF LAW