The program will take place at the Indira Ghandi Open University (IGNOU) School of Law in New Delhi, India. We project enrollment of twenty (20) U.S. law students and ten (10) Indian law students. All enrollees will reside on the IGNOU campus. The program begins in the evening of December 20, 2010 and ends on January 6, 2011. There will be holiday breaks December 25-26 and December 31-January 3. For more information, see program brochure and go to www.law.unlv.edu/IndiaWinterProgram.html.

Acceleration

It is unlikely that participation in this program may be used to accelerate graduation. Students interested in acceleration should check with their home schools.

Cancellation Policy

The Boyd School of Law reserves the right, upon notice, to cancel the program. If the U.S. State Department declares New Delhi to be an "Area of Instability" or issues Travel Warnings for New Delhi, India, UNLV policies require the cancellation of the program. If cancellation occurs after the program begins due to the issuance of U.S. State Department Travel Warnings or declaration of New Delhi as an "Area of Instability," students shall receive a full refund of any monies advanced for the program with the exception of room and board costs incurred prior to the cancellation.

All enrollees and applicants will be notified immediately of any cancellation by telephone, mail, and e-mail addresses provided in their applications. Upon notice of cancellation, monies paid by students will be refunded in full. Monies paid by credit card will be refunded within 20 days. The Boyd School of Law will immediately make all available efforts to ensure that any refunds due which have been paid by check or money order will be refunded within 20 days. Reasonable efforts will be made to identify and assist students wishing to enroll in similar programs for U.S. law students in India during the period of this program.

Credit Transfer

Acceptance of any credit or grade for this course is subject to determination by the enrollee's home school.

Individuals with Disabilities

The program's aim is to treat all participants equally and welcomes applications from people with disabilities. Individuals' needs are taken into account as far as possible, providing reasonable adaptations and assistance within the resources available. We ask that people let us know of any disability or special need (confidentially if required) so that we can help them participate as fully as possible. The facilities are accessible to individuals with disabilities.

Financial Aid

Applicants to the program, who are not students at the Boyd School of Law, should apply through their home universities for financial support.

Application Deadline: postmarked by October 22, 2010 (Applicants are encouraged to apply early and will be accepted on a competitive rolling basis.)
